Dear prospective student,

The Israeli Council for Higher Education has decided to provide a grant to 12 outstanding students from the People's Republic of China to support their Master's degree studies. Their studies and research will be performed at the Albert Katz International School for Desert Studies (AKIS), part of Ben-Gurion University of the Negev's Jacob Blaustein Institutes for Desert Studies.

The fellowships will completely cover the entire cost of the students' studies (tuition and research fees), housing, living expenses and health insurance for the period of 24 months (two years). The China Scholarship Council may also be able to support travel of students from China.

Attached to this announcement is a document with the various research topics and projects of our departments. Outstanding students are kindly asked to submit their application forms, according to the instructions published at <http://in.bgu.ac.il/en/akis/Pages/Admission.aspx>, to Ms. Michal Laniado at michalla@bgu.ac.il.

PLEASE WRITE IN THE SUBJECT LINE OF THE EMAIL MESSAGE: China program.

Sincerely,

Zeev Ronen
